NOTE:

The following two pages are an alternate second page for the test and a revised answer key.

The original version of the test is meant to be given after teaching about the Southeast Region. When I originally wrote this unit for my students, I started with the Southeast Region because that's where we lived. I realize, however, that many people start teaching with the Northeast Region instead.

So, here is an alternate version of the questions that does not need knowledge of any other regions.

Write True if the statement tells about the Northeast region. Write False if the statement does not tell about the Northeast region.
